

Public Sector

Public Sector Overview

Public sector organisations provide a service for everyone: for example education (schools) and security and safety (police and armed forces). These services are paid for via taxation.

(Please note NHS and other health care services are covered with the Health & Social Care sector factsheet)

5.7% of employment in the Humber is in the public sector

Did you know?

- The Public Sector accounts for 5.7% of the region's workforce, employing 20,000 people
- Employment in the public sector, which encompasses public administration, defence and health, is higher in the Humber than the Yorkshire & Humber wider region, and England as a whole
- There are a variety of different career opportunities within Local Authorities ranging from solicitors, accountants, marketing/media roles and IT to conservation
- Part of the recruitment process for the armed forces, police and fire services involves assessing physical fitness, literacy, numeracy and communication skills
- In Hull & East Riding the largest employers are East Riding of Yorkshire Council and Hull City Council
- Nearly all public service organisations offer apprenticeships
- There are over 50 different careers to choose from in the RAF, 220 in the army and well over 5,000 in naval services
- The fire service has changed radically in the last 10 years. Today, the job's as much about promoting community safety as it is about putting out fires

Will there be opportunities available?

- The government's push to reform the public sector means jobs and industry within the sector are in an uncertain position. Predictions are that further job cuts will be made. However, opportunities will be available with the natural turnover of staff and an ageing workforce
- A new prison to be built in East Yorkshire will create over 250 new public sector jobs in addition to the construction and manufacturing jobs required to build the facility

Good to know:

Public sector organisations need people with customer service, team work, problem solving, literacy and numeracy skills. They offer good training and progression opportunities.
